ROCOCO

Take hands and part with laughter,
 Touch lips and part with tears;
 Once more and no more after,
 Whatever comes with years.
 We twain shall not remeasure
 The ways that left us twain;
 Nor crush the lees of pleasure
 From sanguine grapes of pain.

We twain once well in sunder,
 What will the mad gods do
 For hate with me, I wonder,
 Or what for love with you?
 Forget them till November,
 And dream there's April yet;
 Forget that I remember,
 And dream that I forget.

Time found our tired love sleeping,
 And kissed away his breath;
 But what should we do weeping,
 Though light love sleep to death?
 We have drained his lips at leisure,
 Till there's not left to drain
 A single sob of pleasure,
 A single pulse of pain.

Dream that the lips are breathless
 Might quiver if they would;
 Say that the soul is deathless;
 Dream that the gods are good;
 Say March may wed September,
 And time divorce regret;
 But not that you remember,
 And not that I forget.

We have heard from hidden places
 What love scarce lives and hears:
 We have seen on fervent faces
 The pallor of strange tears
 We have trod the wine-vat's treasure,
 Wheace, ripe to steam and stain
 Froams round the feet of pleasure
 The blood-red mast of pain.

Remembrance may recover
 And time bring back to time
 The name of your first lover,
 The ring of my first rhyme;
 But rose-leaves of December
 The frosts of June shall fret,
 The day that you remember,
 The day that I forget.

The snake that hides and hisses
 In heaven we twain have known;
 The grief of cruel kisses,
 The joy whose mouth makes moan;
 The pulse's pause and measure,
 Where in one furtive vein
 Throbs through the heart of pleasure
 The purpler blood of pain.

We have done with tears and treasures
 And love for treason's sake;
 Room for the swift new seasons,
 The years that burn and break,
 Dismantle and dismember
 Men's days and dreams, Julie:
 For love may not remember,
 But time will not forget.

Life threads down love in flying,
 Time withers him at root;
 Bring all dead things and dying,
 Reaped sheaf and ruined fruit,
 Where, crushed by three days' pressure,
 Our three days' love lies slain;
 And earlier leaf of pleasure,
 And latter flower of pain.

Breathe close upon the ashes,
 It may be flame will leap;
 Undo the soft close latches,
 Lift up the lids, and weep.
 Light love's extinguished ember,
 Let one tear leave it wet
 For one that you remember
 And ten you forget.

O me! O life! by Walt Whitman.

Oh me! Oh life! of the questions of these recurring,
 Of the endless trains of the faithless, of cities fill'd with the foolish,
 Of myself forever reproaching myself! (for who more foolish than I, and who more faithless?)
 Of eyes that vainly crave the light, of the objects mean, of the struggle ever renew'd,
 Of the poor results of all, of the plodding and sordid crowds I see around me,
 Of the empty, and useless years of the rest, with the rest me intertwined,
 The question, O me! so sad, recurring—What good amid these, O me, O life?

Answer.

That you are here— that life exists and identity,
 That the powerful play goes on, and you may contribute a verse.

What will your verse be?

Q.E.D.

MIRAC!!! 😊

4/7/20 SAM + MARIE + DANNY + ALEX

It's a little bit cloudy but we still hope to catch a glimpse of the stars, making us aware of the ephemerality of the current state and our existence within it.
Fly us to the moon, let us dance among the stars, show us what life is like on Jupiter and Mars... u

Came up here for the first time since everyone's left. Conferring how familiar this place is.

Saw the moon in all her beauty. I think the partial clouds made her more beautiful.

Cloudy but I'm up here for a quick view - Venus is still peeking out resolutely!

Also - the balcony is a great place for a one-person secret dance party.

4/25: Sam Sherman & Viollette Remette

Jupiter and FOUR of its moons!
Saturn
Mars
What a treat!

AGREED!
yeah, def practiced waltz & quickstep up here before haha

4/29: Mirac Suzgun - HAPPY LAST DAY OF CLASSES!

5/7: David Song - to see super moon

5/7 Selena Zhao - super moon is absolutely stunning, hovering by Bergstrander
Beautiful LA weather too - perfect for a balcony picnic.

5/8: Mirac Suzgun

5/14: David Song
- too much cloud cover after sunset unfortunately
- Perhaps my last time up here before graduation
ends my access - I'll miss using the telescope!

5/23: Mirac Suzgun.

5/24: David Song
Lovely seeing Saturn & Jupiter tonight
First time seeing all four Galilean moons!

5/26: Selena Zhao

Last night with this violin I rented for the duration of quarantine on campus, took it out for some tunes on the balcony!
Some Mars Rvr gazing at the moon etc. I wonder if it's my last time up here

The entries are far and few in between. This pandemic has not diminished our love for the stars. Hope we can enjoy this sky in greater numbers to gather soon.

Arman Amirzhan - came to pickup Celestron AVX equatorial mount + SCT to prepare materials for the ~~the~~ astrophotography tutorial.

- Celestron AVX ^{deep-sky}
- Orion Bag
- Celestron Battery, remote, charger
- Celestron 8" SCT

3 Sept ~~2020~~ 2020

Anthony Yin - tried to use main telescope but ~~some~~ doesn't open. Emailed Kidus & left. Returned everything to original positions.

The pandemic is still in full swing. I found some time in my schedule to pop over to make sure everything is okay. Glad to see there were still visitors even the summer. These are scary times but someone wise once said "Fear is the path to the dark side." Don't fear, have hope. For that's the only way we have courage. See you on the other side.

25 Sep - Kendall Clement - outdoor lunch on the patio - great social distance!

8/10 Noah Jones just coming to check it out after being gone since Mar 2020. Happy to see everything basically the same

8/15/21 Nick Brinkmann. Showed around a friend. Greenish wire things hanging from scope: don't recall them but maybe just forgot! Will email.

8/16/21 Arman - seen Jupiter, Saturn

Checked storage room, equipment

8/21/21 Chelsea (came here with John who plays tennis) - very glad my swipe access worked. Met Kathryn & Windsor today!

8/21/21 John Bourland - 1st day, 1st trip here. Thanks for sharing this amazing place with me!

8/22/21 Chelsea - taking more ppl here again lol. Thank you to the black/white friends for helping move my furniture.

Kevin - Feeling nostalgic and excited at the same time. Been a while since we've been here and hoped for the year.
Kevin Huang - We are so lucky to be back!

The moon is so huge & beautiful tonight!

8/23 Max Nadeau. Checked out situation.

8/23 Lilah Penner Brown, observed the beautiful
