Saturn was super popular. (as was the deck)

We got M53 Globular cluster in coma besides (with Stephen's help!) and Mars
before shutting down.

Found the telescope unstowed, lenscap off, with motor running. Presumably this is the result of post-soiree drunkos. Damn it, guys.

Also, the Finderscope lenscap is missing.

This is frustrating.
 Anyways, showing my dad the deck.
 Beautiful day.
